Worship As Laughter

God created us to be happy and well-balanced people. A lot (if not most) of our work as a community of faith is very serious stuff. But then on the seventh day God rested.

The seventh day of the second week of February happens to be Valentines day (that is if you start counting from Monday), and we are reinstituting what used to be a staple in Baptist life, the Valentines banquet. The Worship and Arts Committee, led by Lauren Winkelman, is putting together "dinner and a show" for everyone. Jim Broyles is the producer of the show. There'll be song and dance (well, at least song), KBC comedy at its best, a gourmet menu, jazz, and will conclude with a local professional stand-up comedian, Sarah Barnhardt. Sarah is known to many of us as the "signer" (not, not "singer" but "signer") in the Twin City Stage's (formerly Little Theater) production of "Smoke on the Mountain."

New Wednesday Series Begins LIVING THE QUESTIONS (LtQ)

Join us in exploring beyond the traditions and rote theologies in which so many people and local churches seem to be stuck. Assuming a basic familiarity with traditional expressions of Christianity, LtQ is ideal as a springboard for the task of reimagining Christianity for a new millennium. Each DVD and discussion session is an immersion in one of the major themes of Christianity that is being rethought as part of the radical reformation of basic Christian doctrine already emerging in the world.

CHALLENGE TOPICS

- Creativity & Stories of Creation
- Evil, Suffering and a God of Love
- What is Intimacy with God
- Why Social Justice
- Many Lives of Jesus
- A Kingdom without Walls
- What is Progressive Christianity

Sessions will look like this:

- 5:30 – 6:05 Meal
- 6:05 – 6:15 Welcome & Prayer
- 6:15 – 6:40 DVD presentation
- 6:40 – 7:10 Discussion

Session Leaders:

Susan Borwick, Ken Meyers, Rhett Travis, and Roger Underwood

CONGREGATIONAL GATHERING

January 10, 2010

photos by Stephen Ball

From the Intentional Interim Minister

Thank you for supplying such a wonderful list of names of your most trusted and respected leaders to constitute the Transition Study Team. Thanks also to the Deacons for putting it all together in a representative way that indeed gives the entire congregation a voice in all the events and activities that will be involved in the congregational self study or "Clarifying Identity" stage of the intentional interim process. The Team will begin their training immediately on a schedule that will be determined by the Team. Keep us in your prayers and continue to offer us your words of encouragement as we continue on our journey towards the calling of your next permanent pastor. Keep in mind also the fact that the key to the success of this process is your full participation with the Team in the forthcoming congregational events. If you have questions about any of these things do not hesitate to ask for help in understanding exactly what we will be doing together. A congregational email with detailed information that was presented this past Sunday is also available to assist you.

To be quiet honest, you can already feel and see a high level of participation ebbing in the life of the church. Sunday mornings at Knollwood are something special, real special, and we all sense that. Wednesday evenings are growing in excitement, in learning, and in numbers as we ran out of food this past Wednesday (a nice problem to have and one that can be easily addressed). I trust that you will find your place of service and ministry in and through the life of this wonderful fellowship called Knollwood.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION/SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Chamber of Commerce

The persons on either side of me at the Chamber of Commerce annual economic meeting knew Knollwood. One was an Episcopalian and one was a self-proclaimed slacker.

The Episcopalian appreciated Knollwood and knew several of our folks here. The other gentleman only knew Knollwood from a distance and positively so. I enjoyed conversations with these and others at the table.

Being out in the community is always important, I think. It helps with perspective and that I not become too myopic inside the castle walls. Who are the folks "outside"? Who is a person of faith and who is not? What are the real-world realities? How is the church viewed – with relevancy or without? Where is the common ground in our humanity? How would our worship or Wednesday night event feel (do you remember your first visit)? Who is an outsider, really?

I just went back to a book I read several months ago, A Primer of Post-modernism by Stanley Grenz. Read this: "the postmodern condition...manifests itself in the multiplication of centres of power and activity and the dissolution of every kind of totalizing narrative which claims to govern the whole complex field of social activity and representation." (p19).

My translation: Christians are no longer in charge in the community. As Jesus-followers, how do we lovingly join the common humanity for the common good? I would love to hear from you.

Among Our Church Family

Our prayers and support are offered to those of the church family currently confined to the hospital...

Forsyth - Tom Wiggins

Medical Park - Darren Chiott

Sticht Ctr - Tom Turpin
(Connie Harvey's dad)

We continue to remember those who have been released from the hospital...

Beth Starkey

Our deepest sympathy is expressed to... Jean Kidd, on the death of her nephew, Bill Surratt.

Congratulations to Heidi and Rhett Travis, on the birth of their son, Rowan, January 5. Rowan joins big sister Arwyn.

Please send information for this column to Ken Meyers - kjm@knollwood.org.
